From

S.Venkateswaran Esquire, I.C.S.,
Secretary, Board of Revenue.

J.B.Brown Esquire, C.I.E., I.C.S., Commr.of Land Revenue.

Read: Letter from the Collector of S.Kanara, Ref.S2-6067/41 d. 28-9-41.

S.No.269/1 of Padu Marnad village of Karkal Taluk, measuring 3.17 acres, stands reserved for assignment to communities eligible for the ameliorative measures undertaken by the Labour Department. Portions of it measuring 0.90 acres each and denoted as S.Nos.269/1C and 1D(Eye sketch on page 7 of Karkal Tahsildar's Ec.No.27/49) were encroached upon by 2 scheduled caste members Chonkri and Henkuru respectively, by constructing a house and enclosing both the plots together with fences on three sides and a stone wall on the remaining one side. The encroachment also contains 3 cocoanut plants and some plantain, mango and cashew-nut trees. The encroachment was effected after 7-12-1938 and the total cost thereof is estimted at Rs.40/-

2. The encroachers now represent that they have occupied the plot and spent a considerable amount of money and labour towards the improvement of the plots on the firm belief that the plots would be assigned to them in the ordinary course.

3. Due to ignorance of the present rules the poor scheduled caste members have encroached upon the plots and spent about Rs.40 which is a considerable amount for persons in their circumstances. If they were to be evicted now from the land, it would work real hardship on the encroachers. In the circumstances, I request that the Board may be pleased to allow the encroachments made by Chonkri and Henkuru on S.No.269/1C and 1D respectively in Padu

Padu Marnad village of Karkal Taluk to continue, subject to the condition laid down in clause(a) of paragraph 1 of G.O.No.2568 Revenue dated 3-10-39.

The records of Karkal Tahsildar's T.C.No.27/49 and D.R. No.33/49 are enclosed for reference and return.
